

Fariba Ghodousi

1. Where did you go school? When did you graduate? (If you are not an RMT, list any education relevant to your teaching)

I went to school in Iran, I graduated in 1993, Bachelor of Physiotherapy and Masters of Anatomy and physiology

2. What do you do for work outside of WCCMT?

I am an Adjunct professor at UBC, Faculty of medicine, teaching Anatomy courses for Physiotherapy students.

3. What inspires you about the profession of Massage Therapy?

All amazing hand technics you use to make people happy, relax and stress free. Making differences in people life with art of hand.

4. What do you enjoy doing in your time away from work?

I love hiking, biking and spending time with my family, watching Netflix series with them.

5. What do you enjoy about working with the students and teaching at WCCMT?

Teaching is my passion and I enjoy seeing students learning and knowing how fascinating our body is and being able to appreciate its beauty.

6. Are there any other interesting pieces of information about yourself that you would like people to know?

I have a Maltese puppy who is named Cluseau, after inspector Cluseau from the Pink panther movie.